

CAPITOL CARE KARAOKE

Event Fact Sheet

- Event: 5th Annual Childhelp Capitol Careaoke
- Date: Wednesday, April 18, 2012
- Place: Atrium, Ronald Reagan Building, Washington DC
- Emcee: Rebecca Cooper, Anchor, ABC7, Washington Business Report
- About Capitol Careaoke: This one-of-a-kind musical evening offers cocktails, a seated dinner, silent auction, and great performances from journalists, politicians, media and sports personalities as they hit the stage to sing karaoke! Our 2010 event raised more than $250,000 to help victims of child abuse and neglect. With your help, we can surpass that amount at Capitol Careaoke 2012.
- Past Performers: Dana Bash-CNN, Megyn Kelly-FOX News, Doug Hill-ABC7
Chris Matthews-NBC, Luke Russert-MSNBC, and dozens more!
- About Child Abuse: Every year, more than 3 million reports of child abuse are made in the U.S., and those reports can include multiple children. Last year, in the DC region alone, 5,000 calls were made to the Childhelp National Child Abuse Hotline: 1-800-4-A-CHILD.
- About Childhelp: Childhelp is a leading National Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Organization created more than 50 years ago. It boasts the only 24-hour national hotline offering crisis services related to child abuse, using professionally trained Masters-level counselors. A holistic approach including prevention, intervention, treatment, advocacy services, and foster care is greatly nourished by any and all donations.
- Sponsorships: Table sponsorships range from $10,000-$25,000.
